ID = inside diameter
 PD = pitch diameter
 OD = outside diameter

1. Pitch diameters are used in calculation of RPM at fan shaft
2. Outside diameter is measured at the outside of the pulley and is used to identify which pulley is installed.
3. Bore ID: Note that motor shaft and fan shaft sizes differ so be sure to select the pulley with correct shaft hole diameter.

Notes:

FOR USE IN STANDARD CAPACITY SINGLE CIRCUIT COILS
FOR DUC VALVES PLEASE REFER TO THE UNIT PRICE PAGES OR NEWMAGIC4

For Changing older coils from R22 to R410A by just changing out TXV's the following rules apply:

If coil is used for Cooling only then changing out the TXV is acceptable for unit size 40 (10 ton) or smaller

If coil is used in heap pump application then changing out TXV is acceptable provided that;

a: Coil was manufactured after October of 2008

b: Unit is size 40 (10 ton) or smaller

RPL

To obtain replacement part numbers and pricing for these models please visit our RPL system on www.magicaire.com

From our homepage - select the box order status/Replacement Parts, then select the link "Replacement Parts" shown under the DP Products Replacement Parts. You will not need a log in to access the parts side.

From there enter either the unit serial number or full model number in the box shown

After entering on of those two items you will be able to get a specific parts list for that model.

A screenshot of a web browser displaying the Magic Aire WebLink Order Status System. The browser's address bar shows "magicstatus.magicaire.com". The page header includes the Magic Aire logo, the system name, and contact information: Telephone: (940) 397-2100 and Email: customer.service@magicaire.com. The main content area is divided into two sections. The first section, "Customer Login", has input fields for "Account Number" and "Password", and a "Login" button. The second section, "Find Replacement Parts", includes a note "(Login not Required)" and two input fields: "Unit Serial Number" (labeled as the preferred method) and "Unit Codestring", each with a "Go" button. Below these sections is a box titled "INSTRUCTIONS" containing detailed text for "Account Number", "Password", "Unit Serial Number", and "Unit Codestring", along with a link to the support website: <http://www.magicaire.com/support>.
